"This is an amazing achievement," said Carlo Rodriguez, writer and director of NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition. "More than 350 movies and scripts were selected for AOF out of thousands of entries, but only five films are nominated in each of our competing categories. To be selected for an official screening was certainly an honor, but to be nominated not just once, but twice, blows our socks off. Our thanks and appreciations go out to Del Weston, creator of the Action on Film Festival, his staff, and to George H. Russell for producing the movie." Gothic Films/Ethician Arts also produced the award-winning feature film, LONG PIG and the award-winning short films PSYCHO KILLER ATTACK and MANIAC BLOODBATH.
