FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The independent film, NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition has been awarded major honors at the prestigious Action on Film Festival held in Pasadena, California from July 23-30, 2010. NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition achieved distinction by winning Runner Up in the "Best Editing in a Feature" category and Runner Up in the "Best Horror Film Feature" category. The film was also honored with the Audience Choice Award. With more than 368 presentations at the festival, only two films received this honor, and NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition was one of them. NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition is produced by Gothic Films, an independent movie studio based in Huntsville, TX, which is owned and operated by Huntsville business leader, George H. Russell. (www.gothicfilms.biz)

"What an incredible feeling this is," said Carlo Rodriguez, writer and director of NAKED HORROR: Celebrity Edition. "I think that these honors make it clear that Huntsville, Texas is on its way to being recognized as a hot bed of indie filmmaking. Our thanks and appreciations go out to Del Weston, creator of the Action on Film Festival, his staff, and to George H. Russell for producing the movie." Gothic Films/Ethician Arts also produced the award-winning feature films, LONG PIG and NAKED HORROR: Art House Edition and the award-winning short films PSYCHO KILLER ATTACK and MANIAC BLOODBATH.

About Action On Film Festival

The AOF Fest is one of the most progressive film festivals on the scene today. With writers, producers, directors and filmmakers from all over the globe, it is truly an international affair. They have helped people sell their films and projects and helped others gain the recognition and representation they deserved. Complete information about the festival, film schedules, and events can be found at www.aoffest.com.

About Naked Horror

Naked horror takes on a new meaning as a young woman finds her body and soul stripped bare when her dreams are invaded by a mysterious psychic force. Feeling isolated from everyone in her physical world, she turns to the Internet where she connects with other people from around the world who are experiencing the same thing. Together, they soon realize that the images they see at night are much more than dreams - they are windows into Hell itself. Faced with this evil supernatural threat, Priya vows to fight back somehow and escape from her naked horror.
